How did the Fund perform during the reporting period?

Since its inception on September 24, 2024, through the semi-annual period ended on February 28, 2025, THIR has delivered a positive total return of 3.15%. THIR's closing NAV for the period stood at $25.81. Given the turbulent nature of the financial markets throughout some parts of 2025, the adviser is pleased with THIR's performance thus far.

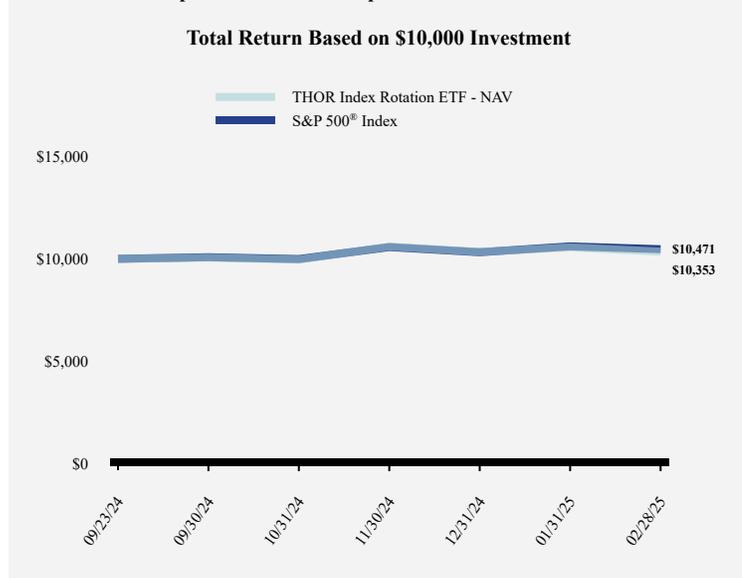

THIR's benchmark, S&P 500 Index, returned 4.42% during the same time period.

Year to date ended February 28, 2025, THIR returned -.11%. Factors attributing to performance versus the S&P 500 index related to THIR investing equally weighted to the NASDAQ 100 represented by QQQ and Dow Jones Industrial Index represented by DIA. THIR was invested in a combination of these indexes throughout the period which would impact its performance vs. the S&P 500 index. THIR was in line with the performance of the THOR Index Rotation Index, the underlying index of THIR.

On December 12, 2024, THIR distributed a dividend of $0.0755 per share, equivalent to a yield of .28%.

Throughout the fiscal year, THIR's investment strategy and underlying rationale remained unchanged. It's important to note that THIR does not employ derivatives as part of its investment strategy.
